

NEWS FROM MONKMAN PASS HIGHWAY CAMP

MONKMAN PASS, B.C., Aug. 25.—C. S. Garrett and family spent a week along the Monkman Pass Highway Association road picking berries and holidaying. Mr. Garrett must have thought he was a boy again, for rambling over hills and valleys made him look like the first instalment of a tourist colony.

The rest of the camp were green with envy as they, who had been out with the supply wagon last week, told of his trip. He attended the dance at Rio Grande and had a great time. He wishes to thank the W. I. for his freedom. When he mentioned M. P. H. A. to the doorkeeper he just had to go in he couldn't have got away if he had wanted to.

Just think, folks, the road is within a mile of the coveted Rocky Lake, the fisherman's paradise, the answer to a tourist's dream of a perfect spot.

The news about camp hasn't been a tragedy in this country for thirty years, but he'll try to do his best any way. Blame, "Push on, boys." Motto: "No hard feelings."

SEEN HEARD

Hey, Jean, here comes a bear. Oh, it's going away! Ouch! Darn it! I wish they'd send out those babies. Gee, I wish "he'd" come back. Someone heard saying, "Pete of Pete and Repeat seemed pretty nice." My, but I do like basketball players! Christie saying, "Now, which one of you guys took that pie?" Jimmy calling about midnight, "Hey, fellows, I got a signal on the radio. I believe it's a Grande Prairie ham. Does anyone know code?" Hey, you fellows. Tom men and bulldog wanted on this log.

A STONY CREEK RHAPSODY

The following was composed by Tina and is sung to the tune of "Abba Abba Abba"

Harry the hobo was the dancing
young lad
And Christie the maiden sat
To the mountain they wandered to look at the stars
In the heart of the forest of air.

From that ridge far away this couple stray
To the banks of a swollen young stream.

And to the moment that followed are often referred
As the answer to a young woman's dream.

They sat near all night 'neath the pale moon
And the story was told to afar
How Christie the monk had managed to love.

Another young Lachlan.

A homesick young maiden her long night kept
By the hill where the Stony Creek flows.

And the words that she murmurs so oft as she weeps
Is "Come back to me Harry, my dear"

WINS THIRD IN 220-YARD RACE AT PROVINCIAL TRACK MEET

Tom Moon, representative of Sexsmith at the Provincial Track meet at Red Deer last week, returned home on Saturday with a gold medal.

Tom entered both the 100-yard and the 220-yard, coming third in the latter. It is only fair to state that he was under somewhat of a handicap, having left Sexsmith Monday by car with Mr. Webster, and practically travelled all the time with a very few hours sleep each night, and arrived in Red Deer only half an hour before the 100-yard race was run. Tom's time at the Grande Prairie meet was 10.2 seconds for the 100 yards and 22 seconds for the 220 yards. The time of the winners in Red Deer was 10.3 seconds for the 100 yards and 24 seconds for the 220 yards.

This explanation is not meant in any way as an alibi, but personally we believe that had Tom not had such a month's trip and had arrived in Red Deer in plenty of time to have gotten his sleep, the results would have been different.

GIVES SHORT BUT SNAPPY ADDRESS AT SCOUT CAMP

Bob Walker, Jr., who has been visiting with his relations in Saskatchewan for the past few weeks, returned home on Saturday with a gold medal.

Bob, who is a member of the Boy Scouts, even being provided with a uniform. Bob was called upon to say a few words regarding the Peace River country and gave a short but snappy address on the flora and fauna of that country, which was received with great applause.

He arrived back in Sexsmith with two bits.

GOOD MUSIC AND GOOD EATS

Do not forget the big dance at the new Kleckun, on Saturday night, on Friday, September 3. There will be good music and good eats, so what more do you desire.

BALANCE OF SCHOOL STAFF ARRIVED ON TUESDAY TRAIN

The balance of the staff of the Sexsmith school arrived by Tuesday's train and were met by a very enthusiastic crowd of school children with that "We love our teacher" expression on their faces.

SYNOPSIS OF "THE ROAD TO GLORY" SHOWING AT THE GRAND THEATRE NEXT WEEK

Captain La Roche (Warner Baxter), a hard-fighting, nerve-racked soldier, is in his room with Monique (Jane Lane) when a courier arrives with orders for him to move up to the front again.

June, a nurse, leaves for the hospital, and while Baxter gives orders for the advance the Germans stage an air raid. June runs through the streets seeking cover and is pulled into a trench by Lieutenant Denet (Frederic March) who takes the opportunity to make love to her. The love, however, without revealing her name.

March returns to Baxter after the air raid and both men look over the reinforcements. Baxter delivers a routine inspirational speech. The Germans take their company up to the front under fire. To add annoyance to the situation, the enemy's machine gun (Baxter) is constantly whistling and fire-cracking.

In the trenches, while the men attempt to sleep, they hear the Germans moving. Their position. Baxter and Monique try to calm the fear-stricken soldiers. They just manage to reach a position of safety when the mine goes off.

Back in their old billets, Baxter is greeted by June. She tells him of the battle-frayed nerves. March makes the rounds of the hospitals looking for June and finally finds her. He tries to send him away but discovers her in a dangerous position.

Baxter informs his officers that they are soon to enter a big drive. He asks March to deliver his personal efforts in a girl whom he loves. March is rebuffed to find it is June. He tells her that under the circumstances they cannot let their affair go any further.

Again, inspection and Baxter finds among the replacements an old soldier whom he orders to the front. There March overhears that the old man is Baxter's father (Lionel Barrymore) who pleads to be allowed to serve. But duty compels Baxter to the rear, escorted by Ratoff.

Barrymore acts Ratoff drunk and persuades him to burn the evacuation order, thus enabling him to re-join the company as it marches to the front. Baxter is furious when he hears that his father did not go back, but cannot conceal a proud smile.

From this point the action of the picture unfolds climax to climax to another with the "Road to Glory" leading on and on.

Shanghai became the scene of the fiercest battle of the unofficial Sino-Japanese war when an intensive bombardment between Japanese naval guns and Chinese and Japanese land batteries signalled the possible recurrence of a disaster to the city such as occurred in 1927. ## At the 19th Hole

Owing to unfavorable weather, the sky being overcast all around, Richmond Hill golf course on Sunday was not overcrowded.

Majority of the matches turned out to be the winning up of the Open Championship Tournament, postponed on account of rain the Sunday before.

However, rain held off until about four in the afternoon, then it started to drizzle and got heavier as time went on.

All flights in the men's section were completed with the exception of the first flight, which was held up by the non-appearance of S. Andrews and Beaver Lodge, who is in the lower final bracket.

In the men's first flight W. A. Harper (Dawson Creek) had a battle royal with C. O. Ody to see who would fill the final bracket to meet S. Andrews. At the end of the seventeenth hole the match stood all square, but Harper took advantage of his opening when Ody fouled a shot and won the match by one stroke.

The final game in the men's second flight was decided on the last green. F. H. Morrow (Dawson Creek) and Ben Emerson were the finalists. The first six holes were halved, each winning a hole and having one for the balance of the first round. The second nine went to the eighth green and still the match was all square. Both players were within three and four feet of the cup at the ninth hole. Morrow sank his putt and Emerson sank his, winning the match. Both players were pretty well soaked having played their last few holes in a heavy drizzle.

The men's fourth flight finalists were both of Dawson Creek. J. N. Bond and W. K. Kavanagh. Bond winning his game from A. Pelletier and Kavanagh from R. N. Crouch in the morning round. This match started late in the afternoon and both players were pretty well drenched after the first nine, and the match stood all square. They played the second nine, and still no result. The extra hole decided the match. Bond winning by a single stroke. Both players were evenly matched. Kavanagh said it was a hard game to lose and a good one to win.

In the finals of the fifth flight the two youngest players of the club, Bobbie Butchart and Jack Edwards, battled it out. Jack, who is considered the better player, succumbed to Bobbie's doggedness. Bobbie coming from behind to win 3 and 2. Congratulations, Bob, on your first taste of tournament play.

The ladies' championship flight was not played out. Mrs. Sinclair (Wemyss) did not show up to play her game against Miss Edna Watson, the winner to meet Mrs. Johnson in the final 18 holes.

First flight finals in the ladies' section was played between Miss K. White and Miss I. Neil. The latter winning by her steadier game around the green.

Len Duffield and H. Hayne (Dawson Creek) played their match early in the morning to see who would meet Duncan in the final. Duffield was one down at the end of the seventh in the first round, but squared the match with a par against a five and won the ninth with a six against a seven, making him one up at the turn. From then on Hayne's game went all to pieces and Duffield took advantage and won the game at the sixth green, winning 4 and 1. Duffield carried a 40 and Hayne a 41 for the first round. The cards:

Duffield scores 453 564 445-40
Hayne scores 403 443 550-41
Duffield scores 562 454 5-
Hayne scores 563 555 4-.

Len Duffield had tea, a light lunch and a short rest before starting out against Ody. Duncan for the 36-hole test in the men's championship flight.

Duncan made good use of the time in waiting and was busy on the greens, improving his putting before the big event.

Duffield gave the signal he was ready to go and the two were made to see who would have the honor, Duncan winning.

The Match, Play by Play
Duncan made a beautiful drive, 220 yards down the center, and Duffield topped his to the right of the hill, about 180 yards. His second shot was short to the right of the green. Duncan overtook the green with his second. Both players were on with their third, but missed making pars, halving with five.

Duffield won the second and third holes with pars and the fourth and fifth were halved with five.

Duffield lost the next three holes. Duncan, playing par golf, won five up. Duffield reduced the lead by taking the ninth hole with a par 5, and the honor beginning the second round four down.

Duffield had the advantage on the drives of about seventy yards, but Duncan did inside on the second shot. Duffield failed to make the sand with his third and Duncan laid his deal for a par 4 against a 5.
Duncan took the next two holes with a par 4 and 5, increasing his lead to seven up.

The fourth hole was halved with par. At this stage of the game Duffield seemed to be having trouble off the tee.

Duffield lost the last 15 holes. Duncan kept pushing them out 200 yards down the middle. Duffield failed to reduce his opponent's lead and lost the next four holes. Duncan making a birdie against a par on the eighth.

On checking up the cards Duncan had struck his way to the end of the eighth with 32. Taking into consideration the state of the greens, this was a record.

However, Duncan, thinking a par 5 would be nice at this stage of the round, dubbed his drive, and kept on dubbing all the way, ending up with a 40, but with a safe margin of ten up going into the last strokes.

After a light lunch and smoke, the match went all to pieces. Duffield having the honor.

Duncan was still going hot and took the first three holes, Duffield losing a stroke every hole on his short approach and putting.

Duffield won the fourth with a par against a 5, but Duncan came right back and held his lead by making a par on the toughest hole in the course, making Duffield dormant thirteen.

Duncan lost the sixth, Duffield putting for a birdie, but by inches. Many a high handicap player will have the honor of playing in the championship or a higher flight as he deserves from his play.

In view of the above, I have taken upon myself to suggest that this and the tournament annually staged at Peace River be combined and enlarged to a three-day event, and to start the ball rolling, have drawn up a set of tentative suggestions, which could be used as a basis of future discussion.

A good time for this would be the coming tournament at Peace River, being held September 5 and 6, and I would suggest that each of the three golf clubs in the district send one or two accredited representatives, when the matter could be fully discussed and if found acceptable rules to govern such a tournament could be drawn up and thereafter submitted to each club for approval at their annual meetings.

Suggestions
1. That a golfing association be formed for the Peace River District, to coordinate all tournaments into one annual event.
2. That an association be formed with elected officers to handle it.
3. That the tournament be staged each year, alternating between Dawson Creek, Peace River and Grande Prairie.

That the tournament be held on Saturday, Sunday and Monday. Monday being Labor Day.

That the tournament be played in the morning and on the course on which the tournament is being held.

That handicaps and other conditions be arranged for Sunday and Monday for entrants who cannot arrive in time to qualify for the championship and in every flight and for players who have been eliminated in the early rounds.

That the prizes be donated for the Peace River Championship for men and women and only residents in the Peace River area, eligible to compete for them.

Dear Mr. President: After attending

BELL-FLEMING TROPHY

The Bell-Fleming Trophy, won last Sunday by George Duncan, who also won it in 1935 and 1936.

The last three tournaments held at Grande Prairie, I would like to make a few suggestions which in my opinion would benefit the game and make an annual event to which all golfers would look forward to.

There is no doubt that golf has become one of the most popular sports, as evidenced by the very large entry in the recent one-day tournament held at Grande Prairie, but the tournament, splendid as it is, does not provide sufficient time to carry each flight to its conclusion and so works a hardship on the out-of-town men, who, after watching the first two rounds, must come back to see the last round.

Lewis Outpoints Farr In 15 Rounds Hard Fighting

Not conceding a chance to stay in the 15-round world's championship heavyweight battle staged in the Yankee Stadium, New York City Monday night, Tommy Farr, the Welsh brawler, withstood the best that Louis could deliver and never finished and in the last few rounds was carrying the battle to his opponent.

Farr is considered by experts to be the best heavyweight to cross the deep slugs Bob Fitzsimmons, the Cornishman invaded the United States.

No doubt Louis and Farr will be rematched when the betting will be changed from ten to one on Louis to even money.

On the other hand Farr landed telling blows with his right and time and again had Louis against the ropes and delivered severe punishment.

During his training Farr received a severe beating from the British brawler, who was carrying the battle to his opponent.

CANADIAN CHEESE EXPORTS TO BRITAIN INCREASED

The principal market for Canadian cheese is the United Kingdom. Canada increased her cheese exports to Britain in 1936 by 20 per cent. However, these exports to Britain comprised only 85 per cent of the total Canadian cheese shipments as against 90 per cent in 1935, Canada having supplied the United States in 1936 with 100,000 cwt. of cheese as against 4,000 cwt. in 1935.

KEEPS ACCURATE RECORD
The United States is far advanced in the matter of keeping records and statistics. They have it down this fine.

Every fraction seconds there is a birth, a death every 22 seconds, an emigration every seven minutes and an immigration every 12 minutes. This results in an increase in population of one every 30 seconds.

Do you know that ...?

The first lesson in piano, or any other branch of the study of music, are in many respects the most ever taken.

Habit formed at that time should be good for a lifetime.

Should those habits be fundamentally wrong, it takes years of expense and work to correct them.

Many gifted pupils, because of a poor foundation, reach a place in their work beyond which they cannot go without the work of ridding themselves of bad habits acquired in the first years of training.
